

“Through the Bible: Deuteronomy 1-7”

Larry R. Ping II

I. Invitation to Possess Promised Land (Deut. 1-2)

- A. In the _____ year, in the _____ month, on the _____ day, God through Moses says “Behold, I have set the _____ before you: go in and _____ the land which the LORD swore unto your fathers, Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to give unto them and to their _____ after them” (Deut. 1:3,8).
- B. Moses reminds the children how he selected other men to help him judge the people (Deut. 1:9-17). What instructions to the judges did Moses give (Deut. 1:17)? _____

- C. Upon entering the Promised Land, important words to remember were “_____ not, neither be _____” (Deut. 1:21).
- D. Moses retells this new generation of the “twelve spies” incident. He reminds them of God’s great displeasure at that time. Even though the people, of that time, begged God to change His mind, “the LORD would not _____ to your voice, nor give _____ unto you” (Deut. 1:45).
- E. Deut. 2 recaps the journeying of Gods people, and some of the happenings. Read the following passages and answer the questions.
1. Who were the children not to meddle with? Why (Deut. 2:4-5)? _____

 2. The children were instructed not to distress the _____. This land was given to the family of _____ (Deut. 2:9).
 3. “For indeed the hand of the LORD was _____ them, to _____ them from among the host, until they were _____” (Deut. 2:15).
 4. Moses made an attempt to act peacefully with Sihon, king of _____ (Deut. 2:26). Sihon, however, did not accept the proposition. It did not turn out well for him or his people (Deut. 2:30-35).
 5. “...there was not one city too _____ for us: the LORD our God _____ all unto us” (Deut. 2:36).

II. More Reminders; Moses Views Canaan; Obedience Required; Law Retold (Deut. 3-5)

- A. God delivers _____, king of Bashan (Deut. 3:1) to the Israelites. This is so, even though he was the only one who “remained of the remnant of _____” (Deut. 3:11). How big was his bed? _____
- B. This newly acquired land would be given to the _____, to the _____ and to half of the tribe of _____ (Deut. 3:12-13).
- C. What reminder is given to these tribes in Deut. 3:18-20? _____

D. Moses pleads with God to “let me go _____” (Deut. 3:25). God refused this request, but did permit Moses to view the Promised Land from the top of _____ (Deut. 3:27). He then tells Moses to encourage and strengthen _____ (Deut. 3:28).

E. Deut. 4 and 5 are chapters dripping with reminders to obey, and of the Law. Below are a few extracts worth recalling.

1. What warning is issued in Deut. 4:2? _____

2. How is God described in Deut. 4:24? _____

3. If the children began to serve idols, God said “ye shall _____ utterly perish from off the land” (Deut. 4:26). If the children kept God’s Law, what would be the result (Deut. 4:40)? _____

4. “The LORD our God made a _____ with us in Horeb” (Deut. 5:2).

5. Deut. 5:6-21 reiterates the Ten Commandments. Of His Law God says “Ye shall _____ to do therefore as the LORD your God hath commanded you: ye shall not turn aside to the _____ hand or to the _____” (Deut. 5:32).

III. Obedience and Children; As You Go Into the Land... (Deut. 6-7)

A. What were the people instructed to do with “these words, which I command thee this day” (Deut. 6:6-9)? _____

B. Moses tells the people the time will come when a “son _____” you about these laws. What were they to say (Deut. 6:20-25)? _____

C. Deut. 7 spells out several reminders as the people go into the Land of Canaan.

1. Make no _____ with the inhabitants (Deut. 7:2).

2. Make no _____ with them (Deut. 7:3).

3. “...destroy their _____, and break down their _____, and cut down their _____, and burn their graven images with _____” (Deut. 7:5).

4. “...the LORD thy God shall _____ them unto thee” (Deut. 7:23).
